Course Administration:

Emergency Medical Services Instructor/Coordinator is taught as a hybrid online/onsite course. Two weeks of reading and online assignments start the course and are followed by three class days of experiential training and discussion with continued online work. Online work must be completed on time- because much of it is interactive, late postings do not allow classmates the benefit of your work. Extensions will only be given for true emergencies after consideration by the instructor.

Attendance at all meeting dates is mandatory for successful course completion.

Course Meetings: Online portion begins November 9th, 2019. Meeting dates are Saturday November 23rd (9:00am-4:00pm) and Sunday, December 8th (8:00am-6:00pm) at National EMS Institute, 7A Railroad Ave, Attleboro.

Course Drop Dates and Refund Policy:

Students may drop the course within one week of the online start date for an 80% refund of their tuition. There is no refund after the first week of the online assignments.

Discipline:

All students are expected to utilize the online portion of the course respectfully and appropriately- no inappropriate language, discriminatory postings or personal attacks will be tolerated.

Cheating of any kind (plagiarism, etc.) will result in dismissal from the course and notice of the offense to OEMS.

No electronic devices (PDAs, computers, cell phones, pagers, etc.) that are not being utilized as part of the classroom activities may be used during onsite classes.

Site regulations regarding tobacco use, food in classrooms/computer labs, and general behavior must be complied with.

Grievances: If you feel that some element of the course (grading, class expectations, etc.) is unfair, find a time outside of the normal classroom hours to discuss it with the instructor.

Registering:

Go to www.wepsEducation.com and download the PDF Registration Form. This form can be completed on line and emailed to wepsEducation@gmail.com or sent via US mail.

Forms and payment must be received by November 8th.

Once your completed registration form and fee is received, you will be placed on the course roster. Instructions for signing onto our online course interface will be emailed the day that the online portion begins. Timely completion of all online assignments and attendance at all three class meetings are required to successfully pass the course.
